

SFRA Support A New Scholar Program (SNS)
(2020-2021)*
Track B: Non-Tenure Track Scholars

Dear SFRA community,

We are pleased to post a call for applications for the SFRA Support a New Scholar Program (SNS), for 2020-2021*.

This New Scholars Program supports scholars of outstanding promise to assist them in taking part as active members of the science fiction community.

This excellence-based grant is aimed to help fund one independent or non-tenure-track scholar for a period of two years, covering membership costs.

Please find below eligibility criteria and application forms for both tracks.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: OCTOBER 30, 2019

If you have any further questions please contact the SFRA Vice President, Sonja Fritzsche fritzsc9@msu.edu.

SFRA Support A New Scholar Program (SNS)
(2020-2021)*
Track B: Non-Tenure Track Scholars

- Eligible candidates will have a proven interest in SF.
- Eligible candidates must have a PhD or some equivalent record of professional maturity.
- Eligible candidates may not be employed in as tenured faculty or in academic tenure-track posts for the duration of their participation in the program.
- Candidates may apply more than once for the program but can only be awarded one time (no matter which track).
- Awarded scholars are encouraged to attend the SFRA conference during the years they participate in the program.

Name:
Postal Address:
E-mail:		Tel.:
Affiliation:
Have you applied to the SFRA SNS in the past?	Yes / No	When?
Have you attended an SFRA conference in the past?	Yes / No	When?
Are you currently or have you been an SFRA member?	Yes / No	When?

By signing the form you are confirming the accuracy of the details in your application and, should you be awarded the grant, your willingness to conform to the guidelines of the program as described and to make public your name and picture on the SFRA website.

Date:		Signature:
--------------	--	-------------------	--

Please submit the following material together with your completed form to the SFRA Vice President, Sonja Fritzsche fritzsc9@msu.edu, no later than 30 October, 2019 [Please note, applications with missing material will not be considered]:

- 500 word description of your SF interests and accomplishments, in support of your candidacy
- 1-2 page CV
- Description of employment status